IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What This Means for Individuals

- When an individual opens an account or requests credit, we will ask for their name, residence address, date of birth, tax identification number, and other information that allows us to identify them. We may also ask to see a driver's license, passport, or other identifying documents.

What This Means for Other Legal Entities

We may also ask to see other identifying documents, such as certified articles of incorporation, partnership agreements, or a trust instrument.
- We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments and other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

UNLAWFUL INTERNET GAMBLING NOTICE: In accordance with the requirements of the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 (UIGEA) and Regulation GG, this notice is to inform you that restricted transactions are prohibited from being processed through your account or relationship with our Institution.
